To Our Readers.

Any neglect on the part of our Carriers to deliver the STANDARD at the proper time and place will be promptly remedied on application at the Publication Office, next door to the Bank of British Columbia, Government Street.

The Daily Standard.

Wednesday, August 24, 1870.

The Topic of the Day.

The topic of the day is Pemberton. Pemberton and his doings are in everybody's mouth. Pemberton's attempt to stop the proprietor of the STANDARD from commenting on the decisions of the Police Court and the Licensing Court, except in such a strain as might suit his views, is the subject of conversation everywhere. People in town and country are shocked at his presumption. Who is Pemberton that he dare attempt, let alone exercise, authority to restrain the press? Is the press only to print what Pemberton thinks proper? and as he permits? Are our tongues to be tied by Pemberton? Is Pemberton infallible? Is he in politics what the Pope is in religion? Are we in Russia, or in France? Is there martial law here? Is there no liberty here? Is Pemberton's mere assertion superior to the opinion of the community? Is his judgment superior to all others? Is free discussion to be disallowed? Are we only to speak such opinions as Pemberton may indicate in his decisions? What on earth are we coming to? Are we freeborn Englishmen under the British Government, or are we serfs under a despotism? Shall men be arrested without notice—dragged to prison—denied the opportunity to give bail—subjected to the ignominy of a Police Court—simply for expressing their honest opinion? Is there no free press here? Is there to be none? Are our citizens to be arrested, lose their liberty, be put to expense for counsel and attorneys, simply because a Justice of the Peace, acting as judge, jury, prosecutor and executioner, in what is partly his own cause, thinks proper to issue his warrant for the arrest of a citizen for expressing constitutionally his opinion of his decision in conjunction with others? Who will come to, who will stay in a country where there is no liberty of speech, no liberty of the press? where no opportunity is allowed by the police to enter a justification before a jury of the country? Will not men shun such a country where such restraints are put upon speech and the press? where men are not guaranteed the liberty of speech and freedom of the press; where at any moment a man may be dragged from his business to gratify some motive of some one in authority? Such is a sample of the torrent of interrogations and exclamations that have been poured from every mouth, on every corner of the streets of this city, since Mr. Pemberton made his attempt to exercise what is practically, in our judgment, a censorship over the press. We do not wonder at the intensity of popular indignation at such an arbitrary exercise of power. Mr. McCreight, in the defense of the case, said that there is no instance, in the law reports, of such an attempt of a magistrate against the press as that made by Mr. Pemberton, for the last fifty years!!! Let our readers recollect the fact, that never since the days of George the Third, when there were two hundred capital offenses in the statute book, whilst there are only four or five now, has a justice of the Peace attempted to do what Mr. Pemberton has done. In the history of the Inquisition, of the Star Chamber, of martial law, of actual revolution, only do we read of such attempts to restrain the expression of opinion. Leaving the merits of the case to be determined as the authorities may think proper, our duty as a public journalist is to fearlessly denounce this encroachment on the liberties of the people. A public journal, although private property, is the organ of public opinion—or of a section of public opinion. An attempt "to puta stop" to its comments on the proceedings of public functionaries is an attempt to prevent the people, or a section of the people, from expressing their unbiased convictions. If the press offend, let the ordinary course of law be followed. But let there be no attempt to muzzle the free expression of opinion by a justice of the Peace acting as judge, jury, and virtually prosecutor, and executioner. That is what this community will not submit to; and very properly too. Our lives, and our property, and our liberty, may really be in the hands of a few men; but there is an appeal against their acts to a higher authority than any in this Colony, and with greater certainty of fair play. Jamaican butcheries, and high-handed acts of Colonial officials, are not endorsed in England now-a-days, any more than they would be here. We have all had our share in this country during the past twelve years. We have all borne the outrageous assumptions of power patiently,—trusting hopefully for a constitutional change. We still patiently await the establishment of representative institutions and Responsible Government. But it is our duty, our interest to hasten both. Our safety is concerned in the speedy establishment of Responsible Government. Does any one think that Mr. Pemberton would have dared to proceed summarily in his prosecution of the proprietor of this paper, if there were a Responsible Executive in this Colony? We do not; however fearless, however conscientious he might be in the discharge of his duty. The people of this city—this Colony—have therefore but two alternation before them: Representative Institutions and Responsible Government which is popular freedom, or Irresponsible Government which is serfdom. In the meantime whilst waiting for the former it is the duty of the people to ask the Governor to remove Mr. Pemberton to some other section of this Colony, and supply his place with Mr. O'Reilly, Mr. Bell, or Mr. Bushby, some one in whom they repose greater confidence than they do in him.

SKEENA RIVER.—We learn from a miner who arrived on Saturday from Omineca, via the Fraser river route, that before he left Tatlah Landing, W. Maddea and another man belonging to the Mitchell party, who were supposed to have been murdered by the Indians, arrived from Skeena river, where they had been prospecting. It appears that Madden had not found anything to pay, and had thrown away his tools and was returning to the place where he had left Mitchell. On coming down the river they saw a place which looked like a gold-bearing locality. They stopped and creviced about for a short time with their knives and found coarse gold in paying quantities. Their provisions were all consumed, and they determined to go to Tatlah Landing for some more, as they were nearer there than to where Mitchell was. The time when they were away getting their provisions was the time that the Indians reported them murdered. A party of 40 men started back with Maddea to thoroughly prospect the place, as it is believed by most of the miners that there are rich diggings on the river. We will have some more news from the party in a day or two more.

PACIFIC RAILWAY GUARANTEE.—The information which reached us on Friday, to the effect that the Dominion Government has been notified that the Imperial Government is willing to guarantee a loan for the construction of a Pacific Railway from Montreal to British Columbia, is about the most important to us, commercially, that has reached us for many a day. It shows that Britain is in earnest in her expressed wish to see built up here a great northern power reaching from ocean to ocean, and is willing to take monetary risks. Montreal will probably now wake up in a matter so vital to her interests. She will virtually be one of the termini of this vast route, whose western extremity will be on the Pacific. The advantages will, of course, be felt everywhere contiguous to the line of route; and the undertaking, in point of magnitude, is one that makes previous Canadian railway efforts sink into comparative insignificance.—Montreal Witness.

HOUSE OF LORDS.—Upon the second reading of the British Columbia Bill coming on in the House of Lords on Monday, July 18th, the Earl of Kimberley stated the object of the Bill was to empower her Majesty, by order in Council, to confer a Constitution on this colony, with the view of enabling its inhabitants to take a larger share in the transaction of their affairs than they had hitherto been able to do. The Bill provided, by means of an order in Council, to establish a Council for the colony, to consist of fifteen members, six to be appointed by the Crown and nine by the people.

Lord Leveden expressed his surprise at this measure being delayed so long, it having been introduced in May last. British Columbia was a colony of very great importance, and was ready for admission into the Confederation of our North American Colonies.

The Earl of Kimberley admitted the delay that had occurred in this matter, but protested against any blame being attached to him in consequence.

The Bill was read a second time.

EARL DUNDONALD.—The life of Thomas Cochrane 10th Earl of Dundonald having been recently added to the library of the Mechanics' Institute, we would in view of the approaching change in the political condition of this Colony earnestly recommend attentive perusal of the first five chapters of that work to any of our fellow citizens in whose minds a lingering doubt may yet remain as to whether immediately after Confederation, Responsible Government should not replace the anomalous system hitherto in force "in these parts." The book as a whole will well repay perusal. Cochrane, in war the cool calculating yet daring leader, ever fertile in resource; in peace the honest patriot, ardent reformer, and man of science,—was a character not of ten to be met with in the world's history. Alas, that his country did not more effectually avail itself of the benefit of his varied abilities. For the rest, let the book itself testify.

NEW BOOK.—We have had laid on our table a work written by the Rev. F. X. Weninger, D. D., entitled "Catholicity, Protestanism, and Infidelity." It contains 343 pages duodecimo. The work is well written and is intended to show that Catholicism is the only true faith. We have not space to give extracts; but from a mere glimpse at its pages, we would say it is well deserving of a perusal, particularly by the unprejudiced.

IN a letter signed "A British Canadian and a native of London," appears the following sanguine announcement:—"With the acceptance of the Manitoba Bill, that is, of the Canadian Act of Parliament organizing the Red River Territory as the new Province of Manitoba, vanishes the last impediment to the Anglo-Canadian route to China, Japan and Australasia, through British Columbian territory.

FOR PUGET SOUND.—The steamer Eliza Anderson, Capt. Finch, left yesterday morning for Puget Sound with about 20 passengers, and a small freight. The steamer Alida, Capt. Starr left at 2 o'clock this morning with about 30 passengers, among whom was the Rev. F. X. Weninger who will lecture on Puget Sound and then go overland to Oregon.

POLICE COURT.—An Indian, named Charley, was fined $1:25 in the Police Court yesterday morning for being drunk and disorderly. Charles Selleck, was found guilty for selling whisky to Indians and who was allowed out on his own recognizance for three days appeared yesterday morning for sentence, and was fined $100 or in default of payment to be committed to prison for six months.

HOME PRODUCTIONS.—We would recommend families and others who have not yet tried Robinson's Celebrated Home Manufactured Soap to give it a trial as it is pronounced by those who have given it a trial that it is a much superior article to that which is imported into the Colony. Give it a trial and you will be sure to buy it again.

FOR NEW WESTMINSTER.—The steamer Enterprise, Capt. Swanson, left at 9:30 o'clock yesterday morning for New Westminster with about 15 passengers, among whom were Capt. Fleming, Mr. McCright, Mr. Robertson and Mr. Peele. Uriah Nelson shipped about 20 head of fine cattle up to his farm above Yale.

GUN PRACTICE.—H. M. S. Scylla left Esquimalt harbor yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock for a cruise and gun practice in the Straits. She will be absent four or five days.

A BIG FISH.—Yesterday afternoon a party of gentlemen were out fishing with fly hooks. One of them felt something heavy on his line, when he pulled it in, and discovered a large skate, measuring 5 ft. 8 in. in length, 3 ft. 8 in. in width, and weighing 62½ pounds. It is the largest fish of the kind which has ever been caught in Victoria harbor. It is to be seen at the Grotto Saloon, and is well worth looking at.

DR. SIMMS lectured last night, for the last time in this city, to a large and respectable audience. The subject was love, courtship, and marriage. The doctor, during his stay here, has lectured to large audiences. He left this morning, at two o'clock, for Puget Sound, on the steamer Alida.

LECTURE.—Last night, the Rev. F. X. Weninger delivered his farewell address, in German, at the St. Andrew's Cathedral, Humboldt street, which was crowded with people of all denominations. The rev. gentleman took his departure on the steamer Alida, this morning.

AGRICULTURAL SHOW.—Mr. Norris has we believe been very successful in collecting subscriptions for the Agricultural and Horticultural show which will take place on the 28th of next month. No doubt but this will be one of the largest and best shows which has ever been held in the colony.

DISCHARGED.—The H. B. Co.'s bark Princess Royal finished discharging her cargo yesterday morning, being only 51½ hours occupied in doing so. The cargo has been turned out in splendid order. It is not known yet where the vessel is going to load.

RUMOR.—It is rumored in Portland, Oregon, that Ben. Holladay, Esq., has bought out the Oregon Steam Navigation Company for the sum of $700,000. Much less than their property cost.

THE steamer Grappler left yesterday afternoon for Nanaimo for a cargo of coal for the fleet at Esquimalt.

INDIGNATION MEETING.—We learn that an indignation meeting respecting Pemberton's conduct is likely to come off soon.

H. M. S. Scylla beat to quarters last night at 9:30 o'clock, outside the harbor. Four heavy guns were fired.

KOOTNAY MAIL.—This mail closes at 4 o'clock on Friday at the post office.

Canadian Mail Summary.

By the arrival of the U. S. steamer Newbern, on Monday, from San Francisco, we have Canadian dates to August 8th, from which we glean the following summary of news:

Prince Arthur contributed £20 to the Canadian Volunteer fund.

A grand rifle match took place in Montreal in the first week of August.

Lieut. Governor Archibald left Ottawa on Monday, August 8th, for the Red River country.

The first detachment of the Red River Volunteers have crossed the Deux River portage.

It is currently reported at Ottawa that the Government intend to raise a standing army.

The agricultural prospects of Canada are not so good this year as they were last.

An important gold discovery has just come to light in Nova Scotia. W. D. Hall is the name of the discoveror. After two years search he succeded in discovering one of the most promising belts of auriferous quartz and slate that has been found in that country.

Canada.

The Hudson Bay Company intend to hold Canada responsible for the loss of their stores in Red River.

A 1200-person indignation meeting was recently held in Toronto to protest against Riel being pardoned; also against the recall of the military force dispatched to Red River. Ex-Gov. McDougall moved a resolution. He said that "if it was recalled it would be a degradation to live under the British flag." Col. Denison and K. McKenzie, Q. C., moved a resolution each. Cartier and Bishop Tache were hissed, and a man who offered three cheers for Riel was badly beaten and kicked out of the hall.

SPECIAL TO THE DAILY STANDARD.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

Europe!

CHICAGO, August 22—The Chicago Evening Post has a special from New York saying private telegrams state that King William and all his Staff together with Gen. Sheridan were surprised and captured yesterday by a party of French cavalry especally detailed for that purpose. This is doubtful authority.

NEW YORK, August 22.—M. Gaillardet's dispatches to Courier des Etats Unis says: It is with difficulty that I can obtain private information of the situation near Metz; Bazaine still insists on the necessity of silence in Cable dispatches. He declares that he is the victor and that his strategic movements has been accomplished with success, but is attended with serious loss. Prince Royal of Prussia continued his march on Paris yesterday and was at Vitry le Francois, and if we may believe the reports which reached the Corps Legislatif, it has the appearance of the movement to turn the camp at Chalons.

LONDON, August 22.—The Garde Mobile is returning to Paris from the front, doubtless because they are unprovided with arms. They say Bazaine is absolutely cut off from his resources; the Prussians are between him and Paris; McMahon is also believed to be surrounded; 160,000 men have passed through Paris to the front since Friday.

300,000 troops at and near Paris is believed that one or more decisive battles will give Paris to the Prussians.

FLORENCE, August 22.—Prince Napoleon is here. His mission is the mediation of Italy.

LONDON, August 22.—Marquis de Laralette French Minister to England is instructed to make demands here similar to that of Prince Napoleon at Florence. Itis certain that Olliver is still in Paris.

PARIS, August 22.—The Journal Official says, the Ministry has received no dispatches from the army of the Rhine for two days, on account of the interuption of telegraphic communication. He thinks the plan of Bazaine has not succeded.

LONDON, August 22.—Dispatches from the Minister of Foreign Affairs, at Berlin, states there were engaged in the battle of Gravelotte, part of the 2d, 7th, 9th, and 12th Prussian army corps, few divisions of which, including the artillery, shared in the fight. The entire army of France, except McMahon's corps and the 2d division of Gen. Failley, were engaged, occupying entrenched positions, all of which, at nightfall, we carried by storm. Losses not correctly ascertained. The contest lasted from noon till nine in the evening.

BERLIN, August 22.—A letter from Queen Victoria to the Empress Eugenie, relating to mediation, dated Aug. 13th, is published: She regetts her inability to intervene, and intimates it is an affair for the Cabinet to take up at a good opportunity.

LONDON, August 22—Evening.—Telegrams says, dispatches this morning, from Switzerland, state that the Germans commenced throwing bridges across the Rhine, between Basle and Mattiseon, in close proximity to the Swiss frontier, and that the German troops are collected at that point. The Swiss Government protested against any violation of neutrality of territory.

LONDON, August 22.—Telegrams from Vienna says, Austrian-Germans pronounce in favor of Germany, in war.

LONDON, August 22.—The Crown Prince, with 150,000 men, apparently intends to march on Paris, by the Valley of Anbe.

McMahon's headquarters are at St. Degier.

The French camp at Chalons is broken up, and the troops are distributed along the line.

Berlin dispatches, to-day, say, Bazaine is disposed to take shelter under the guns of Metz.

McMahon is moving, strategically, to support Bazaine, at the proper moment.

The Prussians have surrounded Verdun, which is imperfectly defended.

Paris is preparing for a desperate defence.

FLORENCE, August 22.—The war appropriation for forty million livers has passed both Chambers.

PARIS, August 22.—The destruction of the Bois de Boulougne has commenced.

BERLIN, August 22.—The Prussians have occupied Mosieres.

PLYMOUTH, England, August 22—Noon.—A French side-wheel corvette has just captured a Prussian bark, off here. Many persons witnessed the affair.

NEW YORK, August 23.—Private cable dispatches dated London, August 23d, 12 m. says: a special Paris dispatches say the armies of King William and Steinmetz are reported as being too severely crippled to assume offensive and it is given out on high authority that Bazaine was reinforced from Chalons on Sunday for the purpose of given battle to the enemy near Metz. He is confident of victory when he will march on the army of the crown Prince and reserves.

A report has reached London of a French victory. Another special from Paris says Bazaine was at Metz, the centre is entirely open to him either to retreat or to receive reinforcements The appalling Prussians losses have sent thrill of horror throughout Germany and recruits are only to be had from country people and working men, nearly all of whom are raw. Bazaine professes to be master of his situation.

Herbert Bismarck, one of the sons of the Prussian Prime Minister was wounded in the foot and his brother William had his horse killed under him.

LONDON, August 23.—Bazaine has forced a passage by way of Anteino Longmon reaching Tonty. It is reported the army of the Royal Prince and Prince Fredrick Charles have formed a junction to the westward of Metz.

ANTWERP, August 23.—The war has paralized business here. No failures have been announced, nor any anticipated here, as everywhere the only hope of the resumption of commercial activity is based on a speedy triumph of the Prussians. It is almost certain that an interposition of the great powers of Europe in the French-Prussian question will take place within a few days.

PARIS, August 23.—The journals continue to urge a levy en masse to exterminate the invaders.

French gunboats now operating on the Rhine have been recalled to the Seine.

The Opinion Nationale, under the caption of "Keep Cool," predicts the defeat of the Prussians.

The Emperor's headqurrters are now at Rheims, and McMahon's at Zerncilles.

The Post is authorized to deny the authenticity of the letter published yesterday, said to have been written by Queen Victoria to the Empress.

The prize promised by the Prussian Government for the capture of the first French gun, has been awarded to a sergeant of the Fifth Rifles.

A letter from Baden says the French peasants are so fanatical as to poison wells in Alsace.

LONDON, August 23.—The following dispatch has been received from Alexandria: the Prussian frigate Bertha, carrying 28 guns, has been captured by the French. No particulars.

LONDON, August 22.—Advices from the seat of war show that the Germans are trying to surround Bazaine and prevent reinforcements from going to him.

The rumor from Luxemberg that the French had occupied Verdun is contradicted.

PARIS, August 22.—The Journal Official contradicts the reported illness of the Emperor and says he will command the Imperial Guard in the next great battle.

LONDON, August 22.—The Daily News copies with approval of the Economist's article concerning the Queen's perpetual absence from the seat of Government, even in times like the present. The News further urges that Premier Gladstone, instead of losing valuable time vibrating at the Queen's pleasure between the extremities of the island, be made at once Regent, with powers to perform duties which she so persistently deserts, though so enormously paid to perform.

NEW YORK, August 22—A cable special to the Herald, dated London, August 22d, says, a dispatch from France states that the American Minister is attacked with brain fever, and his life is dispaired of.

A cable dispatch to the Herald, dated London, Aug. 11, says a dispatch received from Paris, states that alarming demonstrations by the people, took place on Saturday, on the occasion of the receipt of the report that Bazaine had been defeated.

The report that the Crown Prince of Prussian was attacking Chalons is contradicted; it is believed he is now on his way to Paris.

PARIS, August 22.—Lieut. Lamberte reports that Bazaine has succeeded in reaching the railway from Masseres to Montedy and had procured all the provisions.

LONDON, August 22.—The World's cable special says, the Crown Prince is believed to be marching on Paris direct, and it is reported that McMahon and Canroberts are moving upon the road taken by him. His army is estimated at 200,000. The French Marshails are supposed to have an equal number of troops in line, but it is believed that only great good fortune can stop his advance much short of Paris.

NEW YORK, August 22.—Special Paris dispatches to the Times, to-day, says, the pretended victory of the Prussians at Theonville, on the 18th, finds little credance here, notwithstanding the dispatch of King William.

The series of battles which was concluded on Thursday only resulted in given the Prussians command of the roads to Verdun which diverge at Travelotte; the communication by Worth with Theonville remains open.

Friday evening and early Saturday morning the main body of Bazaine's command succeeded in affecting the withdrawal from Metz by the gate of Theonville between Fort St. Quentmand Mount Metz and the railroad connecting Throwith with fortress of Beesban and Mezzieres from which the latter point it proceeds due east to Rhiens, remains intact. By last accounts Bazaine was reported at St. Spincourt near Moutdy 25 miles north of Verdun and 50 miles northest of Metz.

CHICAGO, August 23.—The Times' has the following from New York: Private dispatches received from Paris say McMahon, with the French army lately at Chalons, has completely turned the tables on the Crown Prince.

The Prussian army would then be between the divisions of the French army, which would be crushed.

The French change of front from the line of the Moselle to that of Metz and Verdun was a serious blow to the Prussians, whose programme was to get on Bazaine's flank.

The Crown Prince is now compelled to a long and perilous detour, while his communications with the King were laid open. This is the key to the continued assaults of Bazaine.

McMahon has with him 130,000 veterans, and has thrown himself between the army of the Crown Prince and that of the King, and effected a junction at Verdun with Bazaine's left wing. The Prussian position is perilous. The army is cut in two, with the connected French army between them, and unless the Crown Prince cuts his way through soon he is perhaps lost, but if the press telegrams are true, that he is marching on Paris, he is safe.

NEW YORK, August 23.—A special to the Courier des Etats Unis, dated Paris 23d, says, Preparations for a combat along the line are being made, and by general consent it is believed the issue of the campaign will be decided under our walls.

A man has been arrested on suspicion of having committed the deed.

RENO, August 22.—The Hon. John Fetch is now speaking to a large audience. His arrival was announced by the booming of cannon.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 11—The report telegraphed by the American Press Association, that Seward expects to go to Alaska, conveyed by the Ossipee, is wholly gratuitous, Mr. Seward's rooms on the steamer China, which sails September 1st, for Japan, having been engaged some time since. He never proposed going to Alaska, and will not be conveyed from here by any Government vessel.

It is stated that General George P. Ihrie, U. S. A., who recently returned from Alaska, in behalf of himself and partners, protests against the Secretary of the Treasury for ignoring their bid of a quarter of a million of dollars for annual rental for the Alaska fur-seal islands, and will invoke the aid of the Supreme Court to enforce what they believe to be their rights in the matter.

THE EMPEROR'S WINE.—Among the Winemakers in the Champagne district of France, there is no name in better repute now, we learn, than that of Bouche, Fils & Co., of Mareuil, near Ay. Their Napoleon Cabinet wine, so called from the fact that the Emperor has long preferred it to all others, is supplanting many of the older brands in Europe and United States, and is rapidly coming into general use in British Columbia.

It is the leading wine at Delmonico's and at the recent opening of Fijux's Hotel in Waverly Place, New York, it was decidedly the favorite among the Connoisseurs, journalists and others who were present. Many efforts have been made by American Wine-Growers, in a spirit of honest competition, to rival "the foaming grape of Eastern France," but with limited success; and doubtless for some time to come, it will be preferred for festal occasions to any American manufacture however good. The House of Grelley & Fiterre, Wharf Street, has the agency of this celebrated wine. *
